Description :

PDF-53ad4 | Teens in America's inner cities grow up and construct identities amidst a landscape of relationships and violence, support and discrimination, games and gangs. In such contexts, local environments such as after-school programs may help youth to mediate between social stereotypes and daily experience, or provide space for them to consider themselves as contributing members of a community. Based on... Pride in the Projects: Teens Building Identities in Urban Contexts (Qualitative Studies in Psychology)
