Description :

PDF-50b3d | The 1940's was a time when society thought it improper for women to make a sax wail or let loose hot licks on skins, but with the advent of World War II and many men away fighting the war, women finally got their chance to strut their stuff on the bandstand. These all-girl bands kept morale high on the homefront and on USO tours of military bases across the globe while also helping to establish Ame... Take-Off (Bk & CD)-GLB: American All-Girl Bands During World War II
