Description :

PDF-50b06 | The background: In one school year, fifteen of my 8th grade students had lost a loved one to death, mostly parents. That alarming number was unprecedented. This book is an up-close look at loss from the TEENS that have lived it, in their own words. We have a difficult time with grieving in our culture. There is a push to return to "happy" as soon as possible. However, if grief doesn't have an ap... Teens Dealing with Death: Stories from My Students
